ABOUT CHANTEL

Chantel Clea Goins is an Event Producer and Certified Event Planning Professional. With over a decade of experience, she is driven by the philosophy that doing whatever it takes is the baseline, and going above and beyond to enhance the brand is commonplace.

From concept to curtains, Chantel maximizes her God-given gifts of organization and attention to detail to effectively manage and lead teams in various aspects of live event production. Often recognized for her unyielding drive, focus and enthusiasm, Chantel is a true visionary and proven leader in the planning and production of large scale events. No matter the role, from Production Coordinator to Executive Producer, when Chantel is entrusted with a project, she applies her knowledge and experience and operates with integrity and efficiency, delivering on-time and within budget.

During her 15-year tenure at the NAACP, Chantel reformatted and executive produced the NAACP Spingarn Awards Gala, served as Segment Producer for the NAACP Image Awards Nominees' Press Conference and worked as a Production Assistant for the NAACP Image Awards Show.

Once she launched Clea Event Productions, Chantel had the opportunity to work on a variety of production teams:
